A PENNY SAVED!

Sounds small, you say? But is it small? Ask the woman who buys the Groceries for the family.

We are holding our great list of patrons—and increasing them—because we save them the pennies—a penny here, another one there, and so on down the long list of articles sold in a Grocery store.

By the end of the year, this accumulation of pennies, saved one at a time, has doubled and trebled and multiplied until it has reached a sum in dollars of surprising proportions.

It pays to trade with us—you save the pennies.

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armor glistering just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia?

Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions may be sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by one of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give you

FREE!

Duruy's History of the World

Four splendid cloth volumes, full of portraits, sketches, maps, diagrams. Today is the climax of a hundred years of preparation. Read in this timely, authoritative, complete, AND THE ONLY CONDENSED classic world history—of which over 2,000,000 copies have been sold in France alone—just what has taken place in the inner councils of Europe during the past one hundred years. Read in these entrancing pages how Russia has for years craftily been trying to escape from her darkness—to get a year-round open port, with its economic freedom. Read how Germany and Austria, fearful of the monster's latent strength, have been trying to checkmate her and how they have pinned all in this last, supreme stake.

The Lesson of the Past

This master of the pen shows you the glory that was Greece and the grandeur that was Rome. He takes you through the Middle Ages, the glorious old days of chivalry and the crusades, through the Renaissance up to contemporary history, which follows the course of modern civilization. In the story of the past, he shows you the secret of today. And you will understand them better when you get the Review of Reviews for a year—the Review of Reviews will give you a safe interpretation of the events that are taking place with such rapidity. It is not enough to read the daily news papers. Your ability must be kept sharp, and to do so, you must have the Review of Reviews. It is the only book that will give you the whole story of the world's history in a compact, readable form. It is the only book that will give you the whole story of the world's history in a compact, readable form. ### It Really Does Relieve Rheumatism

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied but it does give almost instant relief.—Adv.

A REMARKABLE WAR STORY

Frederick Palmer Now Witnessing Fulfillment of Prophecy Described in "The Last Shot."

Frederick Palmer, the author of the remarkable story, "The Last Shot," is a typical cosmopolitan. He not only knows war and the men who make war, but he knows the world and has been practically all over it.

Mr. Palmer is a native of Pennsylvania, born at Pleasantville in that state in 1871. He was residing in England at the time the Greco-Turkish war of 1896 began and went to the front as a correspondent. At the close of this war he went to the Klondike as a correspondent. He was in the Orient in 1898 when the war between the United States and Spain began, and was with Admiral Dewey at the battle of Manila, reporting it for the London Times and a number of American newspapers. He remained with the American army in the Philippines throughout the campaign against Aguinaldo. When the international expedition for the rescue of the foreign residents in Peking was organized at the time of the Boxer uprising in China he joined it in the capacity of a correspondent for his papers.

From 1900 to 1903 Mr. Palmer saw service in the Central and South American and the Macedonian Insurrections. With the breaking out of war between Japan and Russia, he joined the first Japanese army in the field as the representative of the London Times and Collier's Weekly, and was almost the only correspondent who saw active service with the Japanese army. He was in Constantinople during the Turkish revolution of 1909, and was with the Bulgarian army throughout the Balkan war of 1913-15.

In addition to this active career as a war correspondent, Mr. Palmer has circled the globe with Admiral Dewey, and again with the American battleship fleet in 1907-8. He is familiar with every capital of Europe, and has a personal acquaintance with a very large number of prominent European government officials and military and naval commanders.

Mr. Palmer is now at the front reporting the present war for the papers he represents, and is witnessing the fulfillment of the prophecy contained in his notable story, "The Last Shot." We have arranged to print Mr. Palmer's remarkable story, "The Last Shot," serially in these columns.
